

Michael J. McCarthy graduated from Fairfield University in 2006 with a degree in Communications. He has worked in the commercial real estate industry since graduation, starting with Newmark, Knight, Frank and Colliers International. Mike currently is a Director for Cushman & Wakefield in White Plains, NY where he focuses on office leasing brokerage servicing a wide variety of tenants and landlords in the Westchester/Fairfield County markets and beyond. He remains connected to Fairfield University, serving on the local Fairfield/Westchester Counties Alumni Chapter leadership team since 2013 as chair of the business development pillar. Mike and his wife Kerry have two children, Carter and Maeve, and reside in Greenwich, CT.